Mrs. Albert Gardnier Suffers for Three Days Without Any Medical Attention.

CONDITION IS SERIOUS

Wind During Storm of Wednesday Night Blows Over the Light-Now in St. Anthony's Hospital.

A pitiful case of suffering and negligence was brought to light Saturday when a local physician was called to the home of Albert Gardnier on Twenty-fourth street near the Lutheran cemetery, where he found Mrs. Gardnier in a critical condition from burns received last Wednesday night, when a lamp exploded, setting fire to her clothing.

From Wednesday night until Saturday the unfortunate women had received no medical attention whatever and during those three days she had suffered extreme pain. The neighbors heard of the case and notified the physician of the accident.

Lamp Blown Over.

Mrs. Gardnier in speaking of the accident at St. Anthony's hospital, where she was removed, said that at midnight on Wednesday the strong in all directions setting her dress covered almost all of her body and she dressed them as best she was able. Her condition is somewhat improved today and it is probable that she will
